

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, high-quality registered apprenticeship programs have provided opportunities and jobs to Nevadans for decades, and our state has made great strides in successfully expanding apprenticeships into high-demand fields such as cybersecurity, advanced manufacturing and healthcare; and

WHEREAS, the number of active apprentices has consistently increased, including among women and minorities, demonstrating that apprenticeship is a viable career path across all segments of our society; and

WHEREAS, registered apprenticeship provides employers and industries customized training to develop their own skilled workforce; and

WHEREAS, registered apprenticeship sponsors ensure Nevada's apprentices follow rigorous work and training schedules to become highly-skilled members of the workforce; and

WHEREAS, more than 5,000 active registered apprentices in Nevada are currently training in high-skill careers that will provide opportunity for achievement as well as contribute to the overall prosperity of our state; and

WHEREAS, the State of Nevada applauds all those working to better our workforce with the positive impact that apprenticeships have on individuals, their families and our business community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVE SISOLAK, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim the week of November 11 - 17, 2019 as

APPRENTICESHIP WEEK IN NEVADA

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 15 day of October.
