T-Mobile Corporation Approved to Sponsor Nevada's Newest Apprenticeship Program

Las Vegas / Carson City (November 25, 2020) – Committed to expanding apprenticeship into non-traditional fields, the Governor's Office of Workforce Innovation (OWINN), with the assistance of the Nevada System of Higher Education (NSHE), helped T-Mobile earn approval for its first-in-the-nation apprenticeship program at the October 14, 2020 meeting of the Nevada State Apprenticeship Council. Originated out of settlement discussions between the Nevada Attorney General's Office, Bureau of Consumer Protection, and T-Mobile, the program will offer apprenticeship opportunities for Business Support Analyst.

"I feel this is an exciting time for Nevada workers and with T-Mobile's commitment to a non-traditional apprenticeship model, it only opens the doors for others to follow," said Richard Williams, Nevada's State Apprenticeship Director.
